3^e Immigration - Writing

Isabelle Azais 3^e Immigration - Writing

My name is Patrick O'Malley and I'm 20 years old. I'm Irish and I was born near Dublin. I decided to leave Ireland because my family is very poor and we don't have enough to eat. I wanted to escape from social and religious turmoil.

My father came to the USA last year because he wanted to find a job and have a better life. My mother, my brothers and sisters will join us as soon as we have enough money to pay for their fares.

I travelled to America by boat. I sailed across the Atlantic from Cork to New York on SS Sunlight. The crossing took 2 weeks. The trip was terrible. It was very cold, it rained a lot and I was seasick and wet. The ship was crowded and my bunk was so small and uncomfortable I couldn't sleep.

When we entered New York Harbour there was a big rumble on the ship. The first thing I saw was the Statue of Liberty welcoming us to the USA. I was so impressed and happy I cried.

At Ellis Island, the immigrations officers asked me a lot of questions about my family and I pass a medical examination too. Doctors didn't put a chalk mark on my shirt and I felt relieved. Then I changed my money and I was allowed to leave.

In Ireland, I was a peasant and I worked on my parents' farm. I'm hard-working and fit and I'm ready to work 12 hours a day 7 days a week. That's why I'm going to apply for a job in the steel industry.
