

Your guide to safety aboard - Air New Zealand

1. Look at the first part of the video and write the words under the pictures :

2. Match the words to the definitions :

WORDS	•	•	DEFINITIONS
briefing	•	•	If someone's in a dangerous situation and needs help, it's an ...
emergency	•	•	Chairs, armchairs, sofas are different types of seat	•	•	A short text giving instructions.
seatbelt	•	•	All the people who work on a plane, pilot, air-hostess, steward etc...
crew	•	•	Good for security when you sit in a car or a plane.
passengers	•	•	All the people who travel by plane, tourists, businessmen etc...
take off	•	•	At the beginning, when the plane leaves the ground and goes up.
landing	•	•	At the end, when the plane arrives at the airport.
electronic devices	•	•	Something that will save your life if the plane crashes in the sea.
lifejacket	•	•	Mobile phones, smartphones, laptops or computers etc...
safety	•	•	A state in which or a place where you are not in danger.

3. Giving orders with the imperative : write DON'T or Ø

Welcome aboard !

First, _____ store your baggage away in the overhead compartments or under the seat in front of you !

_____ keep your eyes on the briefing !

_____ forget to fasten your seatbelt !

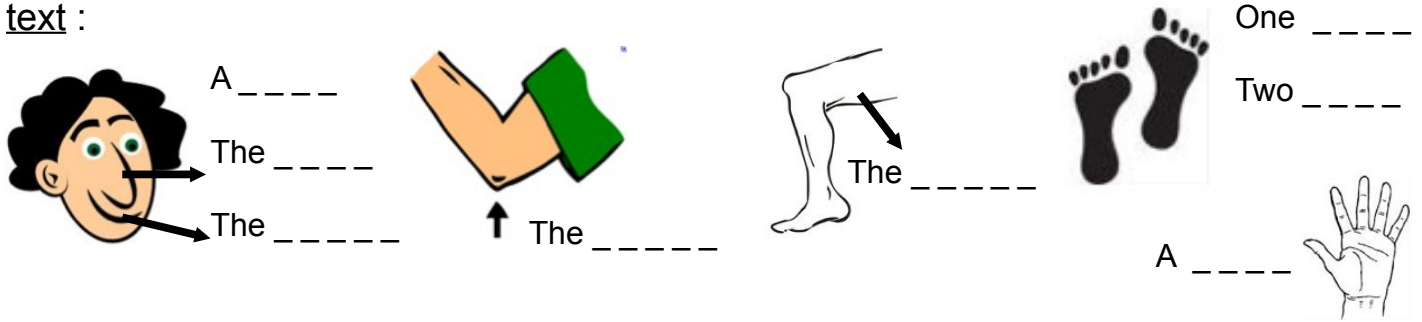

_____ fasten your seatbelt !

_____ ask why when an oxygen mask drops down in front of you !

_____ smoke !

_____ use your smartphone !

4. Watch the end of the video, list all the body parts you can hear, then complete the text :

Place the oxygen mask over your n___ and m_____.

Place your h_____ on your h___ with e_____ on the outside of your t_____.

Keep your f___ flat on the floor.

Rip the lifejacket out of the bag, put it over your h_____.

5. Complete with MUST, MUSTN'T or CAN :

All passengers _____ follow crew instructions.

They _____ fasten their seatbelts.

In case of emergency, they _____ pull down on the oxygen mask and place it over their nose and mouth.

They _____ make sure they've got their mask on before they help others.

They _____ inflate the lifejacket while they're sitting in their seat.

They _____ inflate the lifejacket once they leave the plane.

They _____ switch off or turn off all electronic devices.

They _____ smoke.

They _____ find more information on the safety card.

Now, they _____ sit back, relax and enjoy their flight.